How to make a bequest to St John

You can make a gift in your Will in several ways.
Provided below are some the most common forms of bequests.

Share your estate

Also known as a residuary gift: The residue of your estate is what remains of the estate once all your loved ones and charges have been paid. A residuary gift could be a percentage or the whole of the residue of your estate.

Fixed sum of money

Also known as a pecuniary gift: This is where you leave an exact sum of money to us. Of course, the value of this will decrease over time with inflation.

A specific gift

You may wish to leave us a particular item (known as a specific bequest), which can be sold to support our work. It could be property or an item of value such as real estate, art or a piece of jewellery.
